To enable the Society to help you with your finances it's important that we get a full understanding of your financial position so that we can make sure the support we provide is the most suitable for your circumstances.

Before you complete the form, please read the notes below as these will provide guidance on how to complete the form and avoid the need for additional questions.

Guidance Notes:

- Where the mortgage is joint, please ensure you provide details for both parties to the mortgage for all relevant sections
- If the mortgage is in your sole name, but you have a partner who either contributes to the household income or incurs expenditure that impacts on the household income, please include all details for your partner as well
- To help you complete the form, please have the following details to hand - payslips/self-employed accounts, bank statements, benefits statements, other loan/credit card statements or any other information that will assist in completion of the form
- Where your income isn't the same each month, record the lowest amount and where your expenses vary each month, put the highest amount
- Include all income and expenditure as monthly amount. Where this is an annual cost, divide by 12, and where this is a weekly cost, multiply by 52 and divide by 12.

If you need support, please contact us on 0808 168 8570 and we'll be happy to work on completing the document with you, or answer any questions you have.

You may either return the form back to us by post or email using the contact details at the top of this page. Please mark for the attention of the Financial Support Team.
