Summary Box - Key Product Information

How to take money out of your account

- You must give 60 calendar days' notice to withdraw money or complete a partial ISA transfer
- To complete a full ISA transfer or close your account penalty free, give 60 days' notice. For an immediate closure, you must pay the equivalent of 60 days' interest on the closing amount. If you haven't earned enough interest to cover this, you may get back less than you paid in
- · You can only have one notice period running at a time
- The amount you wish to put on notice cannot exceed your available balance
- This is not a flexible ISA, any amounts withdrawn can only be replaced by using your current years' ISA subscription allowance.

Giving notice using your Leek Online account

- Notice given online can't be cancelled
- Once the 60 days' notice period ends, your money will be sent to your nominated bank account. This will be on the next working day
- If your withdrawal is over £25,000, you have seven calendar days after your notice period ends to request a CHAPS payment. A fee is payable. Please see our fees and charges leaflet for more information.

Can I withdraw money?

Giving notice in branch

 Once the 60 days' notice period ends you have seven calendar days to visit a branch and make your withdrawal. You should complete your full withdrawal requirements on the day you visit.

Giving notice by post

- Your notice period will start the day we receive your instructions
- Once the 60 days' notice period ends, your withdrawal will be actioned. This will be on the next working day.

You can...

- ISA transfer to another Leek Building Society ISA or to another ISA provider, without losing your tax-free status. We'll send your money and required information to your new provider within five working days of receiving their request. If you're transferring your current years' ISA savings then you must transfer all of it
- Transfer money to another Leek Building Society account or to your nominated bank account
- Ask for a cheque in branch or by post
- Visit a branch to ask for cash.

Summary Box - Key Product Information

You have a 14 day cooling off period after you open a 60 Day Notice Cash ISA. This means that if you change your mind, you have 14 calendar days to close the account without notice, charge or loss of interest. Day one starts on the day you open the account.

Interest on ISAs is paid tax-free, without tax deducted. Annual Equivalent Rate (AER) shows what the interest rate would be if interest is paid and added once a year.

ISAs are a savings scheme initiated by the Government and are subject to change by them. For example, the favourable tax treatment may not be maintained.

Additional information

If at any point the account fails to meet the ISA rules and becomes void, we'll notify you.

All money invested in this account must be, and remain, in your beneficial ownership and must not be used as security for a loan or any type of borrowing.

This isn't a payment account.

Accounts can be withdrawn from sale at any time without notice.

You should read these terms and conditions together with our Statement of Practice Investors leaflet to fully understand the details of your account. This includes standard terms and conditions relating to all our savings accounts.

The above rate is effective from 30 August 2024.
